

Aargau, Switzerland, 204–208

action, 9. See also community data collection

adaptive behaviors, 71–88

- bill pouncing, 71–72
- of burrowing-bees, 76–77
- challenges in studying, 81
- of cliff swallows, 88
- of cockatoos, 78–84, 80 (fig.), 87
- and counteradaptation, 83
- of crows, 83–84
- and culture development, 82
- and evolution, 88
- foraging, 74, 78–84
- homing, 76–77
- and human learning, 83
- of mice, 88
- of murmurations, 85–86, 87 (fig.)
- notes on robin and frog, 71–74, 73 (fig.)
- nut dropping, 84
- of prey droppers, 74
- #StarlingSurvey observations, 86
- of starlings, 85–86, 87 (fig.)
- and sustained observation, 75
- tool use in, 84

in urban settings, 87–88

See also backyard wildlife observation

Agassiz, Louis, 19–20

À Giverny, chez Claude Monet (Monet), 129

amateur naturalists. See community data collection

amphibians, 204–208

Anthony, Mark, 116–118

the anthropause, 4–5

antibiotics, soil derived, 127

Antibiotics Unearthed project, 128

aphids, 97–102, 99 (fig.)

Apophthegms, Sentiments, Opinions and Occasional Reflections (Johnson), 149

archerfish, 139

artificial light, 161–166, 164 (fig.)

attentiveness, 31. See also observation

auditory awareness, 157–160

augury, 171

backyard wildlife observation and adaptive behaviors, 71–88

and biodiversity conservation, 211–222

of fungi, 120–128

and habitat recovery, 191–209

of nocturnal wildlife, 149–166

of pond life, 129–147

- process, 13–47
 - and rewilding, 169–190
 - in soil, 109–128
 - species discovery in, 51–70
 - of trees, 89–107
- bark beetles, 118
- bark installations, 194–197, 197 (fig.), 202–203
- barred owls, 149–153, 151 (fig.)
- Bashō, Matsuo, 211
- bees
 - black mud bees, 32–33, 33 (fig.)
 - burrowing, 76–77
 - conservation of, 212–214
 - in Great Sunflower Project, 42–46, 44 (fig.)
 - navigation of, 76–77
 - notes on bee garden, 221–222
 - restoration of, 212–214, 221–222
 - tracking, 6–8
- beetles, snout, 37
- Beggs, Jacqueline, 102
- Bent, Arthur Cleveland, 152
- Beumer, Carijn, 213
- Bibarrambla allenella* (moth), 184
- bill pouncing, 71–72
- BIMBY (biodiversity in my back yard), 213

biodiversity, backyard

and animal migration, 62–63

countering loss of, 9

and the democratization of science, 65

eDNA tool for observing, 145–146

increasing, 164–166, 170

indicators of, 41

in soil, 112, 116–118

in urban settings, 88

value of, 105

See also backyard wildlife observation; community data collection; habitat recovery; rewilding, backyard; species discovery biodiversity conservation, reasons for, 211–222

for bees, 212–214

for butterflies, 212

limits to human understanding, 217–220

monetary value, 216–217

notes on bee garden, 221–222

stewardship, 215

wellbeing for humans, 220–221

for whales, 218–219

for wolves, 218

See also backyard wildlife observation; habitat recovery; species discovery biodiversity in my back yard (BIMBY), 213

biomimicry, 217

- bioprospecting, 216–217
- BioSCAN project, 52–56, 53 (fig.)
- bird boxes, 199–202, 201 (fig.)
- black mud bees, 32–33, 33 (fig.)
- Blyth, Julia, 176–184
 - and galls, 181–182
 - and leaf miners, 179–180
 - and moth preservation, 183
 - strategies for backyard habitat restoration, 177–178
- Book of Documents* (Gong), 111
- Brewer, Thomas Mayo, 193–194
- Brown, Brian, 51–54, 69
- brown creepers, 191–199, 194 (fig.)
 - diet of, 192
 - early appearance of, 191–192
 - feeding young, 198
 - limiting factor for, 193
 - nesting sites of, 194–199, 197 (fig.)
 - See also* woodpeckers
- brush piles, 135. See also observation
- Buckler, Joe, 199–202
- BugGuide.net, 178
- Burroughs, John, 3, 13
- burrowing-bees, 76–77
- burrowing bugs, 118

- butterflies, 184–189, 186 (fig.), 212
- Bwindi Impenetrable National Park, 6–8
- cameras, digital, 5, 34, 35, 62–65, 67. See also smartphones
- cancer, 123–124, 126, 163, 221. See also medicinal species
- canopies, forest. See trees
- caterpillars, 95–96, 186
- Cervantes, Miguel de, 71
- Cheerios for fungi, 123
- chemical extract production, 124, 126
- children, 30–32, 37–38
- Cichewicz, Robert, 122–128
- citizen science projects. See community data collection
- cliff swallows, 88
- climate change, 62, 66–67, 188
- cockatoos, 78–84, 80 (fig.), 87
- colonizing behaviors, 179–180, 205, 208
- community data collection
- for adaptive behaviors, 88
 - for bee activity, 43–46
 - for cockatoo observations, 80–81
 - as educational for families, 56
 - and monitoring, 206
 - for nocturnal insects, 42–43
 - for pond life, 146
-

- for soil fungi, 122, 124–126, 128
- for starling murmurations, 85–86, 87 (fig.)
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; observation; rewilding, backyard; species discovery; tools
- complete habitats, 212–214
- counteradaptation, 83
- COVID-19 lockdowns, 4–5
- crawling for observation, 38–40
- creepers, 191–199, 194 (fig.)
 - diet of, 192
 - early appearance of, 191–192
 - feeding young, 198
 - limiting factor for, 193
 - nesting sites of, 194–199, 197 (fig.)
 - See also* woodpeckers
- crepuscular species, 153. See also nocturnal wildlife
- crows, 83–84
- culture development, 82

- daisy fleabane, 179–180, 180 (fig.)
- darkness, human fear of, 153–155
- Darwin, Charles, 21–27, 111
- Darwin, Francis, 32
- digital cameras, 5, 34, 35, 62–65, 67. See also smartphones
- Diptera order. See flies

- dispersal-limited species, 117
- diurnal species, 153. See also nocturnal wildlife
- Dokuchaev, Vasily, 111
- Don Quixote* (Cervantes), 71
- Douglas firs, 24–25, 92, 93 (fig.), 195–196
- Down House, 21–24
- dragonflies, 140–142, 141 (fig.), 144–145, 146
- Drugs from Dirt program, 128
- Du Bois, W. E. B., 78
- duckweed, 143 (fig.)

- eBird, 65
- ecological complexity, 217–220
- ecotours, taxonomy-themed, 61
- eDNA (environmental DNA), 145–146
- Effe and Mbuti peoples, 5–6
- Eiseman, Charley, 176–184
 - and Bibarrambla allenella, 183–184
 - and daisy fleabane, 179
 - and galls, 181–182
 - and leaf miners, 179–180
 - and sawflies, 182–183
 - strategies for backyard habitat restoration, 177–178
- Eliot, George, 191
- eluviation horizons, 114

empathy for species, 117–118

Engstrom, Brett, 110

environmental DNA (eDNA), 145–146

Epistles (Horace), 169

Erwin, Terry, 90–91

Ethier, Jeffrey, 157–158

Eumenins, 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)

evolution, 67, 88

extinction, 219

Fabre, Jean-Henri, 32–34, 37

farmland habitats compared to suburban, 189

Fern, Fanny, 29

Fertilization of Orchids (C. Darwin), 22

fission-fusion system of foraging, 79

flashlights, 156–157, 160

fleabane, 179–180, 180 (fig.)

flies, 55–60, 60 (fig.), 68–69, 189

foraging behaviors, 78–84

foraging theory, 74

forest bathing, 221. See also nature therapy; trees forests. See trees

foxes, 38–39

frogs, 71–74, 73 (fig.), 156–160, 159 (fig.)

fungi, 120–128

Antibiotics Unearthed project, 128

changing understanding of, 121

Cheerios for, 123

chemical extract production of, 124, 126

Drugs from Dirt program, 128

maximiscin derived from, 126

for medicinal use, 123–124, 126–127 (see also cancer)

pericosine derived from, 126–127

pervasiveness of, 120–121

sample of, 125 (fig.)

streptomycin derived from, 127

See also backyard wildlife observation; soil; species discovery

galls, 170–176, 172 (fig.), 181

gardens, 188

GBIF (Global Biodiversity Information Facility), 65

Geest, Emily, 184–188

Ginger-Snaps (Fern), 29

Global Biodiversity Information Facility (GBIF), 65

GLOBE Observer app, 104

Gong, Z., 111

Gonzalez, Lisa, 56

Goodenough, Anne, 85–86

Grahame, Kenneth, 109

Great Sunflower Project, 42–46, 44 (fig.)

green spaces, 220–221. See also nature therapy growth control for habitat recovery, 193

Gulliver's Travels (Swift), 38 habitat recovery, 191–209 affecting multiple species, 208

 for amphibians, 204–208

 bark installation for, 194–197, 197 (fig.), 202–203

 bird boxes for, 199–202, 201 (fig.)

 for creepers, 191–199, 194 (fig.), 197 (fig.)

 and growth control, 193

 indicators of need for, 193, 195, 198, 202, 203

 and law of the minimum, 193

 and limiting factors, 193, 195, 198, 202, 203

 metapopulations' effect on, 205

 monitoring, 206

 nests for, 191–203

 notes on creepers, 198

 notes on nests, 202–203

 pond construction for, 204–208, 207 (fig.)

See also backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; biodiversity conservation, reasons for;

 rewilding, backyard; species discovery

habituation, 137

Hanson, Thor, 6 (fig.), 93 (fig.)

Hartop, Emily, 54–58, 68, 69n

Henry IV, Part II (Shakespeare), 1

herbivory and predation patterns, 219

hermit thrushes, 1–3, 3 (fig.)

Hesse, Hermann, 102

Hine's dragonflies, 146

The Hobbit (Tolkien), 51

Homegrown National Park, 213

Homes for Sale (business), 199–202, 201 (fig.)

Home Studies in Nature (Treat), 49

homing behaviors, 76–77

honeydew, 99–102

Hooke, Robert, 145

Horace, 169

horizons, soil, 113–114, 114 (fig.)

horse arenas, 212–213

hospital bed study, 220–221. See also nature therapy

human power, 215

human understanding, limits to, 217–220

human wellbeing, 220–221

Hutton, James, 111

Hutton's vireo, 13–18, 15 (fig.)

hyperparasites, 176

iNaturalist website, 62–68

insects. See specific insects

i-Tree tool, 104–107

Johnson, Samuel, 149

The Joyful Wisdom (Nietzsche), 89

Kinsey, Alfred, 171–173, 175–176

Klump, Barbara, 78–84, 87, 88

law of the minimum, 193

Leaf and Tendril (Burroughs), 13

leaf miners, 178–181, 180 (fig.)

Leafminers of North America (Eiseman), 178

learning, human, 66, 83

LeBuhn, Gretchen, 42–46

Leeuwenhoek, Antonie van, 143–145

lichen, 14, 91–92

Liebig, Justus von, 193

light pollution, 161–166, 164 (fig.)

lightsheeting, 41–42

limiting factors, 193, 195, 198, 202, 203

limits to human understanding, 217–220

Loarie, Scott, 62–66, 68, 69

Lorenz, Konrad, 75

macrophotography, 119

Malaise, René, 57

Malaise traps, 57, 58

manna from heaven, 101

mason wasps, 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)

Matthews, Phil, 140, 142

maximiscin, 126

Mbuti and Effe peoples, 5–6 medicinal species, 123–124, 126, 127, 171, 216–217. See also cancer

melatonin, 163

metapopulations, 205

mice, 88

Mickey Mouse rationale, 217–220. See also biodiversity conservation, reasons for microorganisms, pond, 142–144, 143 (fig.)

Middlemarch (Eliot), 191

milkweed, 185–188, 186 (fig.)

monarch butterflies, 184–189, 186 (fig.)

Monet, Claude, 129

monetary value of nature, 216–217

monitoring habitat recovery, 206. See also community data collection

moths, 40–42, 164 (fig.), 181, 183, 184

murmurations, starling, 85–86, 87 (fig.)

naming, 69

National Cancer Institute (NCI), 123–124

Natural History (Pliny the Elder), 94 natural history road trips, 135

nature, people's connection to, 2–4 nature-based industries, 216

nature therapy, 31, 220–221

navigation behaviors, 76–77, 155

NCI (National Cancer Institute), 123–124

nesting habitats

bee navigation to, 76–77

bird boxes for, 199–202, 201 (fig.)

of black mud bees, 33, 33 (fig.)

of brown creepers, 192–199, 197 (fig.)

cultivating, 194–203

ground, 212–213, 222

locating, 7–8, 33, 160

of potter wasps, 35–37, 36 (fig.)

of racoons, 17 (fig.)

of vireos, 14–18, 15 (fig.)

See also backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; rewilding, backyard; species discovery

Nietzsche, Friedrich, 89

nocturnal wildlife, 149–166

auditory awareness of, 157–160

barred owls, 149–153, 151 (fig.)

crepuscular species compared with, 153

and darkness, human fear of, 153–155

flashlights for observing, 156–157, 160

- frogs, 156–160, 159 (fig.)
- light pollution's effect on, 161–166, 164 (fig.)
- and melatonin, 163
- navigation behaviors of, 155
- snow geese, 155
- territorial behaviors of, 152
- "vacuum cleaner effect" on, 166
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; community data collection; observation; species discovery
- Nowak, David, 104–106
- nut dropping, 84

- observation, 13–47
 - acoustic awareness, 157–160
 - and attentiveness, 31
 - brush piles for, 135
 - by children, 30–33, 37–38
 - Darwin's habits of, 21–23, 26–27
 - digital cameras in, 5, 34, 35, 62–65, 67
 - and habituation, 137
 - by hunter-gatherers, 5–8
 - as learned ability, 31
 - lightsheeting use in, 41–42
 - notes from author's backyard, 13–18, 24–28
 - perspective's effect on, 38–40

- repetition in, 19–21
- scaling of apparent distance for, 38
- senses involved in, 38–39
- sitting still for, 136
- slowing down for, 18–21, 26, 75
- volunteer participation in (see community data collection)
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; species discovery; tools
- Odynerus* genus, 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)
- On the Art of Reading* (Quiller-Couch), 167
- outdoor activity, human, 2–4
- ovipositors, 35
- owls, 149–153, 151 (fig.)

- Pacific Northwest climate, 24
- parasites, 175–176
- parent material in soil, 114–115
- parrots (cockatoos), 78–84, 80 (fig.), 87
- pathfinders (wildflower), 39
- path tortuosity, 161
- patterns in nature, 67, 219
- perception, filtering of, 129–130
- pericosine, 126–127
- Perkowski, Tawm, 90, 93–95
- perspective, 38–40, 94, 103
- pesticides, 45

Phillpotts, Eden, 11

phorids. See flies

photos, data uses of. See digital cameras

Pliny the Elder, 94

plume moths, 181

pollinators, 45. See also specific pollinators

pond construction, 204–208, 207 (fig.)

pond life, 129–147

archerfish, 139

dragonflies, 140–142, 141 (fig.), 144–145, 146

duckweed, 143 (fig.)

eDNA, 145–146

microorganisms, 142–144, 143 (fig.)

notes about, 130–134, 138–139, 147

rails, 131–134

snipes, 130–134, 131 (fig.)

See also backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; community data collection; habitat recovery

population sinks, 187

Potter, Beatrix, 171

potter wasps, 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)

power, human, 215

predation and herbivory patterns, 219

preservation techniques for moths, 183

prey droppers, 74

property values, 217

Proust, Marcel, 28

Quiller-Couch, Sir Arthur Thomas, 167

raccoons, 16–18, 17 (fig.)

Raccoon Shack (author's office), 27

rails, 131–134

refuges, backyard habitats as, 188

Rennels, Candice, 184, 185, 189

repetition in observation, 19–21

restoration. See habitat recovery; rewilding, backyard

rewilding, backyard, 169–190

 BugGuide.net for, 178

 daisy fleabane, 179–180, 180 (fig.)

 galls, 170–176, 172 (fig.), 181

 gardens, 188

 leaf miners, 178–181, 180 (fig.)

 milkweed, 185–188, 186 (fig.)

 monarch butterflies, 184–189, 186 (fig.)

 moths, 181, 183, 184

 and population sinks, 187

 for refuges, 188

 sawflies, 182

 suburban compared to farmlands, 189

- tachinid flies, 189
- thimbleberry canes, 169–170, 172 (fig.)
- and umbrella species, 188–189
- wasps, 172–176, 172 (fig.)
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; biodiversity conservation, reasons for; community data collection; habitat recovery; species discovery
- road trips, natural history, 135
- robins, 71–74, 73 (fig.)
- Royal Horticultural Society, 24
- Sand-walk, 22, 23 (fig.)
- San hunters, 5
- sawflies, 182
- scaling of apparent distance, 38
- Schatz, Albert, 127
- Schmidt, Benedikt, 204–209
- Schroer, Sibylle, 163, 165
- scorpions, 67
- Scrooge McDuck rationale, 216–217. See also biodiversity conservation, reasons for
- Scudder, Samuel H., 19–20
- senses for observation, 38–39
- Sexual Behavior in the Human Male* (Kinsey), 171
- A Shadow Passes* (Phillpotts), 11
- Shakespeare, William, 1
- sitting still for observation, 136

skewed results, 56

slowing down for observation, 18–21, 26

smartphones, 64, 65–66. See also digital cameras

snipes, 130–134, 131 (fig.)

snout beetles, 37

snow geese, 155

soil, 109–128

 biodiversity in, 112, 116–118

 burrowing bugs in, 118

 classification systems for, 111

 dispersal-limited species in, 117

 eluviation horizons in, 114

 empathy for species of, 117–118

 formation of, 115

 fungi in, 120–128, 125 (fig.)

 horizons of, 113–114, 114 (fig.)

 macrophotography for, 119

 organisms in, 119 (fig.) (see also fungi)

 parent material in, 114–115

 varieties of, 110–111

See also backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; community data collection; species discovery species, value of, 215

species discovery, 51–70

 automatic identification of, 64, 65–66

biodiversity in, 62–63, 69

by BioSCAN project, 52–56, 53 (fig.)

and climate change, 62, 66–67

digital camera use for, 34, 35, 62, 63, 64–65, 67

by eBird, 65

and evolution, 67

flies, 52–56, 58–60, 60 (fig.), 68–69

and human learning, 66

by iNaturalist website, 62–68

Malaise traps for, 57, 58

notes on insects, 58–60

pattern detection for, 67

sampling tools for, 57, 58 (see also tools)

scorpions, 67

and skewed results, 56

smartphone use for, 64, 65–66

taxonomic impediment in, 61, 68–69

See also backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; biodiversity conservation, reasons for; community data collection; habitat recovery; rewilding, backyard

species identification, automatic, 64, 65–66

Spider-Man rationale, 215–216. See also biodiversity conservation, reasons for spiderwebs, 40

Sprengel, Carl, 193

#StarlingSurvey, 86

starlings, 85–86, 87 (fig.)

stewardship, 215

streptomycin, 127

suburban habitats compared to farmland, 189

sunflowers, 42–46, 44 (fig.)

sunlight, 211

Swift, Jonathan, 38

tachinid flies, 189. See also flies

The Tale of Squirrel Nutkin (Potter), 171

Tallamy, Douglas, 40–42, 46–47, 213

Taxon Expeditions, 61

taxonomic impediment, 61, 68–69. See also community data collection

Teale, Edwin Way, 134–136, 138

technology. See tools territorial behaviors, 152

Theory of the Earth (Hutton), 111

thimbleberry canes, 169–170, 172 (fig.)

Thoreau, Henry David, 8

Thorley, Catherine, 26–27

thrushes, 1–3, 3 (fig.)

Tolkien, J. R. R., 51

tools

for adaptive behaviors, 84

digital cameras, 5, 34, 35, 62–65, 67

eBird, 65

- eDNA, 145–146
- flashlights, 156–157, 160
- GLOBE Observer app, 104
- iNaturalist website, 62–68
- i-Tree, 104–107
- lightsheeting, 42, 43 (fig.)
- Malaise traps, 57, 58
- smartphones, 64, 65–66
- #StarlingSurvey, 86
- TreeSnap program, 104
- Treezilla project, 103
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; community data collection; observation
- traps for flies, 57, 58. See also flies
- Treat, Mary, 49
- trees, 89–107
 - accessing, 90–91
 - aphids in, 97–102, 99 (fig.)
 - caterpillars in, 95–96
 - Douglas firs, 24–25, 92, 93 (fig.), 195–196
 - forest bathing, 221
 - GLOBE Observer app, 104
 - i-Tree tool, 104–107
 - lichen in, 14, 91–92
 - monetary value of, 104
 - notes about, 24–26

- perspective from, 94, 103
- TreeSnap program, 104
- Treezilla project, 103
- wasps in, 94–98, 99 (fig.), 100–102
- See also* backyard wildlife observation; biodiversity, backyard; observation; species discovery
- TreeSnap program, 104
- Treezilla project, 103
- Turner, Charles Henry, 76–78
- turret builders (wasp), 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)
- Tyler, Winsor, 197

- Ueda, Ken-ichi, 63
- umbrella species, defined, 188–189
- urban ecology, 87–88

- vacuum cleaner effect, 166
- vireos, 13–18, 15 (fig.)
- Virginia rails, 131–134
- “Vitality of Seeds” (C. Darwin), 22
- vitamin D, 211
- volunteers. See community data collection

- Waksman, Selman, 127
- Walden Pond, 8
- Wallace, Alfred Russel, 31

wasps

as biomimicry sources, 217

gall wasps, 172–176, 172 (fig.)

potter wasps, 29–30, 34–37, 36 (fig.)

yellowjackets, 94–103, 99 (fig.)

Webb, Emma, 184, 185, 188–189

wellbeing, human, 220–221

whales, 218–219

“When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom’d” (Whitman), 2

Whitman, Walt, 2

Wilson, E. O., 59

Wilson's snipes, 130–134, 131 (fig.)

The Wind in the Willows (Grahame), 109

wolves, 218

woodpeckers, 191–199, 194 (fig.)

diet of, 192

early appearance of, 191–192

feeding young, 198

limiting factor for, 193

nesting sites of, 194–199, 197 (fig.), 200

yellowjackets, 94–103, 99 (fig.)

and aphids, 97–102

and caterpillars, 95–96

eyes of, 96–97

and honeydew, 99–102

See also wasps

Yu Gong (Gong), 111